

Limitation of Salary Removed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The $50,000 salary limitation for a Washington law firm assisting the Arkansas Highway Commission was removed Wednesday.

The firm of Glassie & Moley is helping in a case involving possible recovery of funds spent for asphalt.

No new salary ceiling was set.

The Highway Department contends that asphalt was priced too high by mutual agreement of various companies.

would be the first to lead it.

The President told a news conference he believes the Senate will confirm both and that he tested the political winds in talks with Democratic and Republican leaders, as well as key committee chairman, before making the decision.

The GOP petition, circulated by Michigan's Robert P. Griffin and California's George Murphy, takes a stand against letting a "lame duck" president fill court vacancies.

Both Griffin and Murphy said it had no bearing on the personalities of Johnson's appointees. In fact the petition was drawn up before Johnson made public his appointment with the object of opposing Johnson's move to name anyone to the court.

Notably missing from the list of signers was Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois.

Dirksen has refrained from taking a stand on the issue, first raised by Griffin. But he would be under increasing pressure if the petition picks up more signatures.

The GOP leader, also top Republican on the Senate Judiciary Committee which will consider the appointments, said both Fortas and Thornberry are able men and he has "no personal reservations" about their appointments.

Sen. Howard Baker Jr., however, the Tennessee Republican who is Dirksen's son-in-law and a signer of the petition, said "the mood of Congress and the country is in disagreement with the views of the Supreme Court on many issues."

"In this light," he added, "it is important that a new administration and the American people not be deprived of the right to fill these positions."

Baker also said that Fortas and Thornberry and "long-time political associates of the President," and that he therefore doubted "the necessary confidence in and respect of the high court can be established on that basis."

Democrats generally praised Johnson's selections, but the Southerners were silent on what course they would pursue.

Since Thornberry and Fortas have taken stands on the liberal sides in cases involving such things as civil rights, they could be expected to side with liberals on the court.

Generally, and especially in landmark decisions on personal liberties, the court has voted 5-4 with Warren, Fortas, William O. Douglas, William J. Brennan Jr., and Hugo L. Black the majority.

If that trend holds, the addition of Thornberry would give the liberal majority a 6-3 edge.

Canadians Elect First Negro

HAMILTON, Ont. (AP) — Lincoln MacAuley Alexander, son of a railroad porter, says his platform and 500 youthful campaign workers—not his race—got him elected as Canada's first Negro member of Parliament.

"I hope they won't call me the Negro member from Hamilton West but simply the member from Hamilton West," he said Wednesday. "I hope my victory will give other people faith that in Canada anyone can win, no matter what his race, creed, color or religion."

A Conservative, Alexander with his 268-vote victory kept the Liberal party from sweeping Hamilton's four districts, Hamilton West where he won, was also the first Canadian district to elect a woman to Parliament.

The 46-year-old lawyer and former college football player said his race was never an issue in the campaign, but that he was proud to be the first Negro elected to the Canadian House of Commons.

Alexander maintained that issues and not personalities were the important factor in his election. However, he conceded that his appeal to his young supporters helped turn the tide.

Camden Man Named U of A Trustee

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — George R. Shankle, president of First National Bank of Camden, is the new appointee to the University of Arkansas Board of Trustees.

Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller announced the appointment Wednesday.

Shankle, 53, is a 1937 University of Arkansas graduate. He told newsmen he would support the merger of Little Rock University and the University of Arkansas because of LRU's accessibility to the state.

He declined to call himself a Republican.

Shankle succeeds Robert H. Smith of Walnut Ridge whose term expired in March.

gling from their heads. It's no wonder their brains are heated to a boil.

But envy never helped anybody, and it is of no help to a baldy. He must find other solaces, and they are available.

For example, he might learn to take pride in his condition. After all, many modern savants predict the whole human race will be bald in a few centuries. The baldy is merely ahead of the pack.

Also, baldness saves a man time, money and makes him look crisper and neater. Doesn't a cueball look tidier than a hairball?

The ordeal of baldness could be lessened in other respects if society itself would show a bit more kindness.

Let's stop kidding bald men. Another constructive step would be to start a campaign to get Congress to have the bald eagle replaced by the bald man as our national symbol.

This makes real sense. The bald eagle is slowly dying out, but there are millions of new bald men every year. Nothing is more symbolic of America today than baldness.

are saying with my own ears" and not to participate in any way in the peace talks.

"This would not be an official mission," he said in New York, "and it would be consistent with my campaign and I think in the best interest of the United States of America."

In other political developments:

— Rockefeller called in Hartford, Conn., for "a totally new system for distributing federal funds"—including direct payments to states and cities unrestricted as to use—to support governments close to the people.

— Nixon and Humphrey scored equally in a Gallup Poll survey on their ability to deal with the Vietnam war—with 4 per cent of the adults surveyed believing Humphrey and 41 per cent believing Nixon could do the job better than the other.

— The House Republican Policy Committee blaming Democrats for delay, has urged immediate consideration of a bill aimed at tightening controls over campaign contributions.

— Adlai E. Stevenson III, Illinois state treasurer and son of the late U.S. ambassador to the United Nations, has been named vice chairman of the United Democrats for Humphrey.

31 Convicts Refusing to Work

CUMMINS PRISON FARM, Ark. (AP) — Prison Supt. Victor Urban said Wednesday that 31 inmates who have refused to work at the state's prison will be kept in outdoor confinement and fed meat loaf twice a day until the problem is settled.

Seventeen inmates at Cummins Prison Farm refused to work Tuesday and were confined to an 18 foot square compound.

Fourteen inmates at Tucker Prison Farm refused to work Wednesday in what Urban said was "probably a gesture of sympathy" for the cummins' inmates. He said the sitdowners at Tucker would be placed on a baseball diamond at the prison.

A newsman asked Urban what would happen if it rains.

"Then it just rains," he answered.

"Will they sleep on the ground," he was asked.

"Yes they will," Urban said. He said the striking inmates were being given meat loaf in the morning and again in the afternoon, plus water to drink.

The inmates at Cummins refused to work after a tomato was thrown near a field supervisor. An inmate was called aside for a talk, according to Urban, but 16 other inmates responded by saying: "If he goes, we go, too."

Urban said the tomato-throwing incident was another example of the "general unrest among prison populations."

He said he met with the sitdowners at Cummins Wednesday and told them they should select a spokesman.

"I don't know what their response was because I didn't stay there too long to talk about it," Urban said. "When they get a decision I'll be ready to talk to them, but I didn't think I ought to be around while they made up their mind."

Bob Scott, Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller's aide on prison affairs, informed the governor about the situation Wednesday.

Scott said he didn't expect the situation to get worse.

Robber Wanted Two Things

ST. LOUIS (AP) — A man walked into Lil's Food Shop in St. Louis Wednesday night and said: "Light the cigarette in my mouth and give me the money out of the cash register."

Mrs. Mable McLaughlin, 50, the clerk, said the man pointed a revolver at her while she lit his cigarette. She then gave him $26 and he fled.

Urban said the tomato-throwing incident was another example of the "general unrest among prison populations."

He said he met with the sitdowners at Cummins Wednesday and told them they should select a spokesman.

"I don't know what their response was because I didn't stay there too long to talk about it," Urban said. "When they get a decision I'll be ready to talk to them, but I didn't think I ought to be around while they made up their mind."

Pickup of Garbage to Be Restored

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — Fort Smith city officials said Wednesday that they hoped to restore partial garbage pickup service today and indicated they were looking into the possibility of contracting out the garbage pickup service.

City Administrator Jack Shelley said persons had been hired to replace some of the city's striking 190 nonunion city employees. The strike, which was prompted by the city's refusal to recognize union representation, entered its second week Wednesday.

In another development, city officials moved to prohibit striking and picketing by city employees.

The city asked the state Supreme Court to conduct an immediate hearing on a Sebastian Chancery Court decision which supported the employees.

Strikers, including members of the street, water, airport and sanitation departments, announced Wednesday that they would circulate petitions "as soon as possible" in an effort to recall Mayor Jack Freeze and the seven city directors.

Guachita Okays Airport Bonds

CAMDEN, Ark. (AP) — An airport expansion program was approved Tuesday by voters in Guachita County, but defeated by Calhoun County voters.

The joint plan called for a one-mill tax to finance a joint bond issue to expand Harrell Field runway so it could accommodate jets. The total cost of the project was estimated at $800,000, but the federal government had indicated it would match the bond money which would have amounted to more than $440,000.

Infant Killed in Accident at Jonesboro

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — Sherry Clairday 3-month-old daughter of Mrs. Patricia Clairday of near Jonesboro, was killed and four other persons injured Wednesday in a two-car collision on Arkansas 18 near here.

State Trooper Daniel Oldham said the child was a passenger in a car driven by her mother, Mrs. Clairday and three more of her children — Patrick, 3; Phillip, 4; and Douglas, 5 — were injured.

Court Curbs G&F Action Against 10

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A suit, contending that the state Game and Fish Commission does not have the right to take away rights of 10 Faulkner County residents, was filed Wednesday in Pulaski Chancery Court.

The ten residents who filed the suit said they had grazed cattle on 30 square miles of Camp Robinson in Faulkner County for 26 years. They said the commission and its director, Hugh Hackler, had ordered them to remove their herds by July 1.

The commission was recently granted the right to begin a game control and game management program at Camp Robinson.

BRIDE-ELECT HONORED AT BREAKFAST

Mrs. R. L. Gosnell honored Miss Tena Louise Pilkinton, of New Orleans, with a breakfast on Wednesday, June 15 at the Heritage House.

The table was centered with an arrangement of white daisies and Marguerite daisies. Places were marked for 12 guests which included Mrs. James H. Pilkinton, mother of the honoree, Mrs. W. R. Burks, her aunt, and Mrs. Jack Lee Royal, her cousin. Miss Pilkinton was presented a corsage of fleur d'amour and a gift of china.

LUNCHEON HONORS BRIDE-ELECT

Miss Vickie Toland of Nashville, bride-elect of Thomas Gill of Little Rock, was the guest of honor at a luncheon in the Town and Country on Saturday, June 22. Hostesses were Mrs. Hubert Thrash and Mrs. Ray Lawrence of Hope, Mrs. Johnny Wilson of Columbus, and Mrs. J. A. Daniel of Nashville.

The bride-elect wore white linen trimmed with red and blue, and her corsage was a white gladiolus. Mrs. Jay Toland of Nashville, mother of the honoree, was given a fleur d'amour corsage.

A large lace rice bag encircled with gardenias and lilies of the valley centered the table, and miniature replicas of the bride and bridesmaids marked the places for 16. Out-of-town guests included the honoree's sister, Miss Jayne Toland, and Mrs. Jimmy Williams, both of Nashville, and Miss Linda Yellidell of Hot Springs.

A gift of crystal was presented to the future bride by the hostesses.

SHE'S PUT OUT AT MAKE-OUT BAN

Dear Helen: You told a 12-year-old girl she was too young to make-out. I feel that if a girl and a boy of any age are mature enough to really have a feeling for each other, they're ready for kissing — which is all make-out is. If you make-out with just anybody without caring for them, then the pleasure soon wears off, and you start wanting to go farther.

I am almost 13 and my friends and I feel we are mature enough to know when and where to make-out and when to stop. It's part of growing up, and very natural. — A.G.J.

I'll let one of my older correspondents answer you:

Dear Helen: I feel sorry for these 12- and 13-year-olds who think they're old enough for more mature things, like dating, making-out, going steady, etc.

I'm not some kind of square — just a 17-year-old girl who learned the hard way. I've had more than my share of guys out for one thing. I've even gone through drinking much too much — that happens, when you date too early and keep wanting more as the "same old thing" bore's you.

Now I realize I had the respect of very few people outside my own crowd — and I wouldn't call THAT respect! Sure I was real popular — with the wrong people.

Them I met a boy, someone who opened my eyes and told me to take a good look at myself. We've been going together eight months and I haven't touched liquor once, nor has he tried to touch me, except for uncomplicated kisses.

ALL I can say to those eager kids is: Don't try to grow up too fast. Keep one thing in mind: Guys will be guys, and the older a boy gets the harder he is to control. If you care date before you know how to handle fellows, you're a goner. Don't kid yourself: There are a lot of guys who REFUSE to take "No" for an answer. By trying to be old too soon, you're — sort of in a hidden way — giving them a "Yes." — CONCERNED GIRL

Dear Helen: There was a party and I asked for a soda. I'd never tasted liquor, so I didn't know the difference when my boyfriend gave me "punch." I got as carefree as anything.

Well, now I am a pregnant girl. My problem is the boy feels horrible about it and scrounged up $500 from his savings. He gave me the name of a lady who would give me a safe abortion.

Helen, I can't do it. I'd feel like a murderer.

Mike (my boyfriend) won't take the money back. I haven't told my folks yet. I am a pg with $500 for — I don't know what. — WHAT TO DO?

Dear Helen: Use the $500 toward expenses for your pregnancy. An illegal abortion might hurt you physically — and mentally — far more than facing your parents with the truth and waiting out your months of penance. — H. P.S. If you'll send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope, I'll send you the names of homes for unwed mothers in your State.

Dear Helen: You're so right when you say to teens, "But it always hurts SOMEBODY, and that someone might be YOU!" When a girl falls so much in love that she figures sex is the answer, she's blind and foolish.

He's gone now. He tells me sex had nothing to do with our breaking up, but the thought will always be in my mind. He promised to marry me and love me always. It lasted less than a year. This kind of "love" is just hurt and misery. But I guess those other starry-eyed girls will have to find that out for themselves. — A LITTLE WISER

Four Hours of Fishing Costly

TACOMA, Wash. (AP) — Four hours of fishing were costly for Donald Whitwell. Hoodlums slashed four tires on his station wagon. New ones and towing came to $200. When he got home he found his $150 outboard motor stolen. Meantime, his six trout spoiled.

Dove, Hawk in Fashion Not Political

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON
AP Fashion Editor

NEW YORK (AP) — Fashion for fall is a dichotomy of dove and hawk, the New generation and the old — although these trends do not necessarily reflect the political views or the ages of the designers.

Like a two-faced woman the fall scene is both lavish and parsimonious, colorful and drab, escapist and realistic, sensual and prudish, sublime and ridiculous.

The contradictions have been hobbing up regularly at the American designer series of style previews here this week.

The dovish influence of the flower children showed up in the underground world of fashion, with posy printed slips and bras and Indian meditative sleepwear in the Warner lingerie lines.

Designer Stan Herman of Mr. Mort, who believes in "doing your own thing," offered his bag of hippie fashion influences — particularly the vest. Indeed, the whole Indian scene has been translated over and over again by one style house after another.

At the same time there are fashion hawks who cling to the military look whether on land or sea. Lynda Byrd Robb's wedding dress designer Geoffrey Beene is one. Put on the hawkish side his Napoleonic-cut tattersall check coats, his khaki doughboy girls wearing pleated skirts, and brass-buttoned, belted jackets straight out of World War I.

Call Anne Klein a now-generation realist in the midst of a then-generation backlash of romantic and old-fashioned clothes.

With slick leathers and buff suedes and rough tweeds and shaggy furs, Miss Klein has remained steadfastly modern, simple and honest in her design. Prim Victorianism has been the backlash of too much nudity in recent seasons past. Yet some of the best designers have been loathe to give up the skin game altogether. Oscar de la Renta believes the belt line is best left uncovered. But others dare to leave bare a goodly portion of the bosom either by plunging necklines or cutting peek-a-boo windows or using see-through fabrics.

The voluptuously exposed bust is an old fashioned gimmick that somehow remains thoroughly modern.

Iceland has been a republic since June, 1944.

Arkansan in Louisiana Contest

MONROE, La. (AP) — Louisiana Tech sophomores Linda Coates and Susan Burbank were first-round winners in preliminary judging at the Miss Louisiana pageant here Wednesday.

Miss Coates of West Monroe drew the judges' nod in swimsuit competition with measurements of 36-24-37.

Miss Burbank of El Dorado, Ark., topped the talent division. She sang, "I Can Feel It," from Fantastics, and "If Only Takes a Moment," from Hello, Dolly.

The girls, both brunettes, are sorority sisters at Tech's Sigma Kappa chapter. The pageant finals will be Saturday.

Gibson Reels Off His 5th Shutout

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Momentum will be in Bob Gibson's corner when the St. Louis swiftness resumes his pursuit of Don Drysdale... and colds head-on with Mr. Zero himself.

Gibson reeled off his fifth straight shutout... one short of the major league record set earlier this month by Los Angeles' Drysdale... with a four-hit 3-0 triumph over Pittsburgh in the opener of a doubleheader Wednesday night.

But Drysdale, whose shutout string ran out about the same time Gibson started picking up steam, proved he hasn't lost his magic by hurling 7 2-3 hitless innings on the way to his 200th career victory, a two-hit 2-1 nod over San Francisco.

Drysdale, who holds the all-time mark of 58 2-3 consecutive scoreless innings, and Gibson, with a string of 47 blanks intact, are due to oppose each other next Monday night at Los Angeles.

The Pirates rebounded from their loss to Gibson and trimmed the National League leading Cardinals 3-1 in the nightcap. Cincinnati shaded the New York Mets 7-6, Houston nipped the Chicago Cubs 2-1 and Philadelphia slipped past Atlanta 3-2 in 11 innings.

Baltimore topped Boston 6-2, Washington upended Cleveland 8-2 and Oakland beat California 3-0 in American League play. Detroit was rained out at New York and Minnesota and Chicago were idle.

Gibson, who started his string of shutouts with a 4-0 victory over Houston on June 6, two days before Philadelphia ended Drysdale's skid, struck out seven, walked none and continued to shag off his run at the whitewash record.

"I really don't care about it, but everybody talks about it," he said the big right-hander, 9-5 on the year. "If I set a record... fine, I don't really care."

"Shutouts are secondary. Get yourself preoccupied with shutouts and pretty soon you're behind. I'm not looking forward to a shutout. I'm looking forward to a win."

Gibson contributed a fourth-inning double to the Cards' attack and scored on Lou Brock's double. Mike Shannon homered in the eighth.

The Cardinals stopped Maury Wills' 24-game hitting streak in the second game, but the Pirates rallied behind Matty Alou, who collected three hits and drove in two runs. Ron Kline preserved the victory with a clutch relief job in the ninth.

Dave Marshall's pinch single with two out in the eighth deprived Drysdale, 10-4, of both a no-hitter and a shutout after the Dodger ace dug himself into a hole with a walk and a throwing error. Jim Hart's two-out single in the ninth was the only other San Francisco hit.

The Dodgers gave Drysdale all the support he needed in the seventh inning, when Wes Park or doubled across one run and Hart threw wide to the plate for another.

New York rallied for three runs in the ninth, but Ted Abernathy pitched out of the jam and prevented the Mets from bringing their record to .500. Tony Perez socked a bases-loaded triple for Cincinnati in the fifth.

Chicago got only two hits off Dave Gusti in losing its 11th game in the last 12, Jim Wynn homered for the first Houston

Dobson's Win Was Just Professional

By HAL BOCK

Associated Press Sports Writer

Neat, quiet and nice. That was the way Oakland's Chuck Dobson put away the California Angels 3-0 on a three-hitter Wednesday night.

No fussing. No feuding. Just a professional, clean-cut job.

Listening to Bill Rigney, manager of the Angels, talk the night before, you'd have expected the two teams at each other's throats. It never happened.

"My players are sore at someone," Rigney had said after three batters were hit by pitches and another spiked in California's 7-6 victory Tuesday night. "I wouldn't miss Wednesday night's game for anything in the world."

In other AL action Wednesday, Baltimore rapped Boston 6-2 and Washington whacked Cleveland 8-2. Detroit's game at New York was rained out.

In the National League, Philadelphia shaded Atlanta 3-2 in 11 innings. Cincinnati outlasted New York 7-6. Houston nipped Chicago 2-1. Los Angeles edged San Francisco 2-1 and St. Louis split a doubleheader with Pittsburgh, winning 3-0 before losing 3-1.

Dobson, staked to a quick 2-0 lead, was in command from the start and didn't allow an Angel past first base after the first inning. Jim Dregosi had two of the three singles Dobson, 5-7, allowed.

Mike Hershberger doubled home one run and scored another for the A's in the first and Phil Roof completed the scoring with his first homer of the year in the second.

Baltimore used a familiar theme to beat Boston with Frank Robinson, Brooks Robinson and Boog Powell all smashing home runs. It was the kind of power show that carried the Orioles to the American League pennant in 1966.

Brooks tagged his seventh of the year—a two-run shot in the fourth. Frank followed with No. 4 for two more runs in the sixth. Elston Howard's two-run homer was the only damaging blow off Dave McNally, who finished with a six-hitter.

Washington scored eight runs in the first two innings and Camilo Pascual coasted past Cleveland on a four-hitter.

Catcher Jim French, recalled earlier Wednesday from the minors, drove in two first inning runs with a single and Bernie Allen's two-run triple keyed a six-run Senator uprising in the second.

Pascual, who won his seventh, owns Washington's only two victories in the last 13 games.

Travis Rally in 9th for Victory

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — The Arkansas Travelers rallied for all their runs in the ninth inning Wednesday night and edged the San Antonio Missions 3-2 to salvage the finale of a three-game Texas League series.

Outfielder Bill Murphy, a strike out victim in two of his three previous trips to the plate rapped a long single to drive in Quique Rivera and cap the Travelers' rally.

San Antonio, riding lefthander David Lemonds' three — hit pitching, went into the final frame with a 2-0 lead.

Successive singles by Mike Christino, Bobby Dews and Jerry Davanon loaded the bases with no one out. Christino got the first run as Rivera forced Davanon at second base.

John Spin's single scored Dews to tie the game.

Palmer Heads Cleveland Tourney List

By HAL PARIS

Associated Press Sports Writer
CLEVELAND (AP) — Slump-ridden Arnold Palmer and U.S. Open king Lee Trevino head the cast of 44 pros who teed off today in the first round of the $110,000 Cleveland Open Golf Tournament.

The sixth annual event, with the top prize of $22,000 awaiting the winner, was without some of the game's glamour boys.

Leading money-winner Billy Casper, Masters' champion Bob Goalby, former PGA titlist Bobby Nichols and Columbus better Jack Nicklaus were absent.

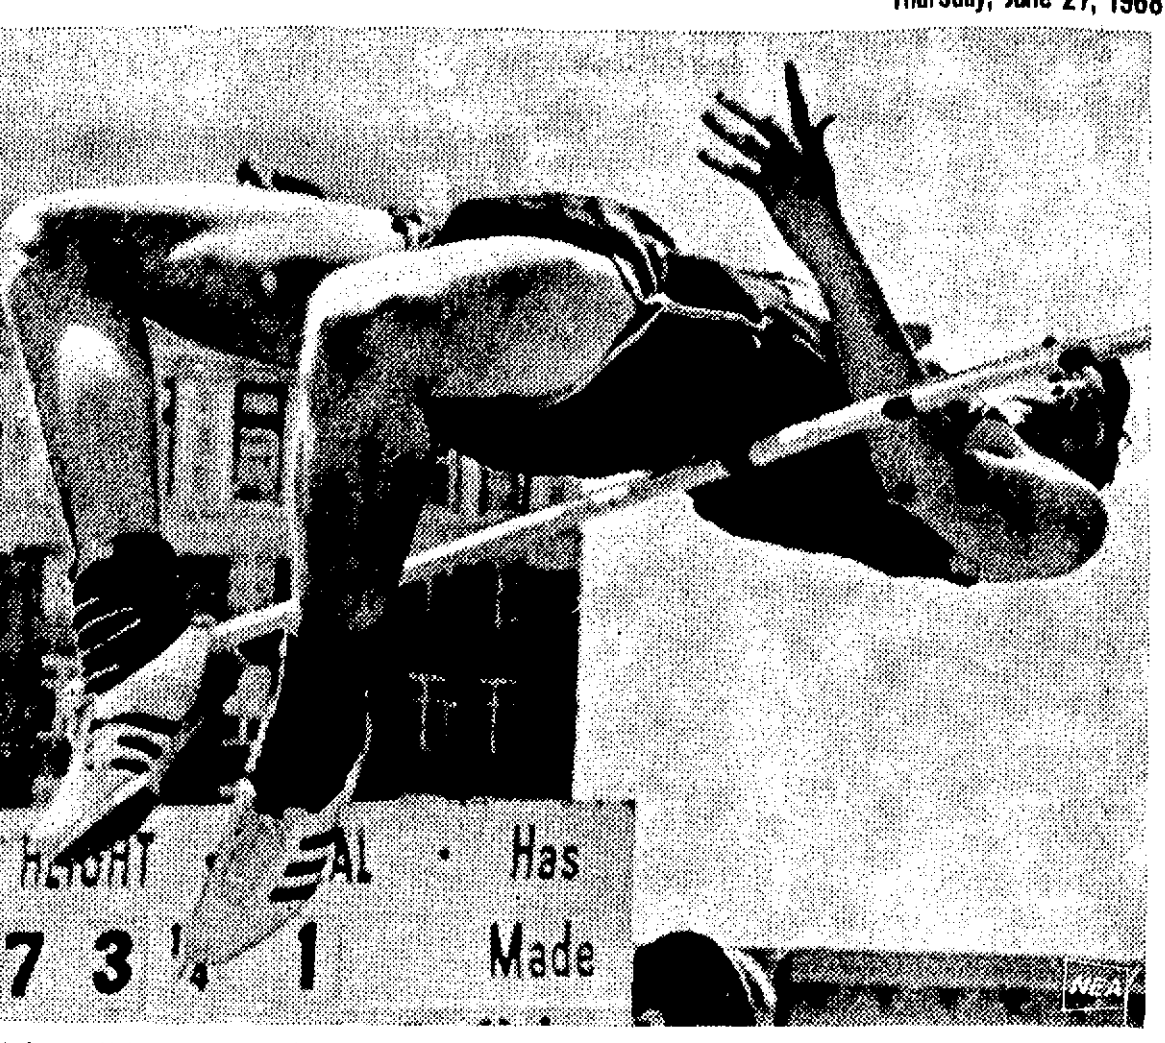

But in addition to Palmer and Trevino, the pro circuit's newest sensation, the field included 41 of the top 50 money-winners and 15 victors of the tour's 20 tournaments.

Palmer, always a favorite here since he captured the first Cleveland Open in 1963, has only one tournament victory to show for the year.

The game's all-time leading money-winner toured the par 71, 6,742-yard Lakewood Country Club course Wednesday with a fine four-under 67 in the pro-amateur but complained he still wasn't playing well.

"It hasn't been any one part of my game that is giving me trouble so it's hard to concentrate on what I'm doing wrong," Palmer said.

Trevino, complaining about the steady rain that drenched most of the players, said he played well after a week's lay-off. He shot a 69.

His winning vault cracked the mark set by John Thomas of Boston University in 1961. On the attempt shown, Fosbury's heel kicked the bar as he tried to clear 7 feet, 3¼, one-half inch less than the American record.

Division Play Recommended for Baseball

NEW YORK (AP) — Baseball's executive council, heading Commissioner William D. Eckert's call for a "united front," has recommended uniform scheduling and division play next year when the major leagues expand to 12 teams apiece.

Following a meeting in New York Wednesday, the five-man executive council, headed by the commissioner, unanimously recommended that the National League adopt a two-division setup and the American League retain the present 162-game schedule.

The two leagues will act on the recommendations in Houston July 10, the day after the All-Star Game in the Astrodome.

The American League has announced it will go to two divisions of six teams each and will cut its scheduled 156 games followed by a playoff between division champions, with the winner advancing to the World Series.

Last month, the National League granted 1969 franchises to Montreal and San Diego, then later announced it would stay with one division and a 162-game schedule.

"I have always advocated that the two leagues moved forward jointly and present a united front with the common aim — what is best for the baseball public," Eckert said in calling for an end to inter-league differences over expansion.

Fears had been expressed that the excitement created by an American League pennant playoff between division champs would detract from the prestige of a National League pennant race in September.

Unanimous approval of the National League club owners is necessary for a switch to two divisions.

Under the American League's divisional split Kansas City and Seattle, the new clubs, will play in the Western Division along with Chicago, Minnesota, California and Oakland, Boston, New York, Washington, Baltimore, Cleveland and Detroit will be in the Eastern Division.

Quarry May Get Crack at Frazier

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Jerry Quarry may get a crack at Joe Frazier, if not the heavyweight boxing crown which the Philadelphia claims, possibly by September.

Matchmaker Mickey Davies of the Olympic Auditorium here said Wednesday he is attempting to stage a heavyweight bout between Quarry and Frazier, recognized as world champion in five states.

Jimmy Ellis, who beat Quarry in the World Boxing Association finals, is recognized as champ by the WBA.

Frazier stayed out of the WBA's heavyweight elimination tournament to decide a successor to Cassius Clay.

Grandfather Has Qualified

DETROIT (AP) — Walter C. Kade, a 64-year-old grandfather from Detroit, took the ninth of 10 qualifying spots Wednesday for the Sunday's Gold Cup hydroplane race.

Peggy Conley Likes British Weather

WALTON HEATH, England (AP) — Let the wind blow and the rains come, Peggy Conley loves it.

"I do, I really do like what others call bad weather," said the 21-year-old Spokane, Wash. student whose 77 Wednesday led qualifiers for the 1968 British Women's Golf Championship.

"We see a lot of weather where I come from," she said. Indeed, the rain and wind which turned Walton Heath's 6,242-yard par 75 course into a fickle enemy failed to daunt either Peggy or her six colleagues on the American Curtis Cup team.

They all qualified with scores ranging from 77 to 83, while the British stars racked up high 80s and low 90s.

Miss Conley was the immediate favorite to win the title. But breathing down her neck were here teammates, including Mrs. Anne Welts, also from the state of Washington, and Shelley Hamlin of Fresno, Calif.

The American contingent dominated the qualifying round completely. Their drives overcame the fairways and blustery wind. Most of them were getting up in two on the long holes when the others were short and fighting for a chip and a one-putt.

Aussies Try, to Pair Pros, Amateurs

By GEOFFREY MILLER Associated Press Writer WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — Australian tennis officials have just a week to try to persuade other countries that professionals should be allowed to play in the Davis Cup — and the odds are stacked against them.

Tennis sources at Wimbledon, where pros and amateurs are competing together for the first time, said most delegates are likely to vote against the plan when the Davis Cup committee meets in London next Thursday.

Bob Kelleher, president of the U.S. Lawn Tennis Association, dropped a broad hint that he will not be supporting the Australians.

"We are not against it in principle, but we don't think the time is ripe to bring in the pros," Kelleher said.

Australia, winner of the Davis Cup eight times in the last nine years, has changed its opinion after years of bitter opposition to having pros in the tournament.

The cream has been skimmed off Australia's Davis Cup talent by the promoters in the last year. Roy Emerson, Fred Stolle, Tony Roche and John

Standouts in Football to Play Pros

By RON SPEER Associated Press Sports Writer ATLANTA (AP) — Last fall's college football standouts battle Friday night in the eighth annual Coaches All-America game which either kicks off the 1968 season or wraps up the 1967 campaign.

The nationally televised duel matches quarterback Gary Beban of UCLA, the heralded Heisman Trophy winner, against Greg Landry of Massachusetts.

Beban, who has been erratic in practice, will direct the West while Landry will quarterback the East.

West Coach Dee Andros of Oregon and East Coach John Pont of Indiana both have predicted an explosive game, although last year's scrap ended in a 12-9 conquest for the East.

This year's game may be another low-scoring show, with both teams boasting top defensive players.

The East's defense will be led by tackle Kevin Hardy of Notre Dame, tackle Claude Humphrey of Tennessee A&I, linebacker D. D. Lewis of Mississippi State and halfback Frank Loria of Virginia Tech.

Heading up the West's defense will be tackle Wayne Mayland of Nebraska, guard Granville Liggins of Oklahoma, linebacker Fred Carr of Texas El Paso and halfback Dick Anderson of Colorado.

The West, which trails in the series 4-3, has some offensive standouts including pass-catcher whiz Rick Eber of Tulsa, explosive halfback Max Anderson of Arizona State and long-range kicker Jerry De Poyster of Wyoming.

Andros admitted, however, that he doesn't have a block-busting runner with the power of the East's Larry Csonka, 235-pound Syracuse fullback.

"Csonka is all everybody said he was," said Pont, who also can call on Tennessee halfback Walter Chadwick and Tulane's Bobby Duhon for running assignments.

Both Pont and Andros indicated they would give all 30 members of each squad a chance to play, because temperatures probably will be in the low 80s.

Kickoff is set for 8:30 p.m., with ABC televising the game.

Newcombe have all joined the touring professionals.

The current Wimbledon tournament is only the fifth open event since the International Lawn Tennis Federation sanctioned open tennis three months ago. Each member nation was given freedom to decide its own policy, and even tennis officials find it hard to agree on who is an amateur and who is not.

At Wimbledon 79 players — some acknowledged pros, others ranked as amateurs — are playing for prize money.

Rain continued to spoil the first open Wimbledon tournament Wednesday. Play was restricted to 3½ hours.

First row: Mary Roy Moses, Alice Lorraine Heard Williams, Eunice Brown Stanford, Annie Mae Robinson Butler, Mary Brooks Green, Beverly McConnell Taylor, Margaret Hogue McFarland, Reva Jean Roberts Cowger, Kenneth Miller, and Clifford Franks.

Second row: Martha Louise Brown Hagler, Alice Jones Bowden, Minnie Ella Green Schmitt, Rosemary Coop Howard, Ina Jean Montgomery Brown, Nellie Jean Bailey Webb, Betty Ruth Coleman Smith, Betty Robins Hutson, Phyllis Williams Coleman, and Houston Schooley.

Third row: Franklin Middlebrooks, Marion Mouser McRae, J. C. Howell, Earl Martin, Billy Dan Jones, Glen Williams, Raymond Taylor, Wilma Hartsfield Reece, Maxine Hatcher Dillard, Eva Jean Milan Avra, and John Asher Hutson.

Fourth row: Delwin Ross, Jack Bell, James Henry Moore, John Cecil Weaver, Joe Mack Bearden, Ray Velle Roberts, Harold Gilbert, Carroll Hyatt, Howard Cobb, Dorsey Betts, Donald Messer, Joe Patterson, Barry Brown, T. J. Barber, success.

The program for the evening closed with the singing of the Hope High School Alma Mater. J. C. Howell directed the song, and Mrs. B. C. Hyatt accompanied the group. The Class disbanded with plans for a 30th year reunion.

Perry's Boys Pick Up 4th Straight

Perry Truck Stop independent baseball team won its fourth straight game last night by walling Magnolia 12 to 1.

Buddy Jordan picked up the win, allowing only two hits. Jim Jordan led the hitters with three and four runs batted in.

Next Perry's will play the DeKalb, Texas team Saturday night at Legion field at 8 o'clock, Sunday the team goes to Texarkana for a twin bill.

Drysdale May Never Come Any Closer

By RON RAPOPORT Associated Press Sports Writer SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Don Drysdale, who had just come within four outs of a no-hitter, figures he may never get any closer. He just isn't the type.

The big Los Angeles right-hander set down San Francisco on two hits Wednesday, winning his 200th career game as the Dodgers beat the Giants 2-1.

Not until there were two out in the eighth did pinch hitter Dave Marshall deliver the first San Francisco hit, a solid run-scoring single to center.

Upset? Not Don. "I wasn't worried about a no-hitter," Drysdale said. "With two out, I was just hoping to keep the first guy off base in the ninth so the next guy wouldn't hit one out."

"I'm not really the type of pitcher that pitches no-hitters. I pitch them in and out and try to get guys to hit the ball."

"No-hit pitchers are usually guys who pitch up and down, who are a little wild sometime and then everything falls in."

Drysdale had limited the Giants to just two walks when Jack Hiatt walked, leading off the eighth. Bobby Bonds then bunted and was safe when Drysdale's throw pulled Wes Parker off first.

Gibson Keeps Things in Perspective

By CHARLIE BAROUH Associated Press Sports Writer ST. LOUIS (AP) — Bob Gibson likes to keep things in their proper perspective.

Like for instance winning. That comes first.

So while questions about his five consecutive shutouts get out of hand, Gibson keeps everything under control — his fastball, his curve, even his irritation over record-rabid sports writers. The St. Louis Cardinals' right-hander spun his fifth shutout in a row for a 3-0 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates in the first game of a doubleheader.

Gibson shrugs off the talk about his chances of beating Don Drysdale's newly set record of six straight shutouts and 58 2-3 scoreless innings. Gibson has 47 consecutive scoreless innings.

"Macht nichts," Gibson said in German to show his lack of concern over shutouts. "It doesn't make any difference, I thought about a shutout in the sixth or seventh inning, but of course the first thing you think about is getting runs. The shutout is secondary."

The nine-game winner got his runs in the first, fourth and eighth innings. Gibson even doubled in the fourth to help build a run.

"You can get yourself preoccupied with shutouts and pretty soon you find yourself behind," Gibson warned. "But I think anybody thinks about a shutout in the sixth or seventh if he's pitching good."

Then he laughed. "The very first thing you think about is a no-hitter."

Gibson gave up four hits. But nobody made it as far as second. And Gibson didn't walk a man in his sixth straight victory.

 Sometimes we wonder if our presence as kibitzers may not affect the bidding and the play.

 South was a pretty good player and we can only assume that the way South played the dummy was the result of our being in back of him.

 He started by letting the first spade run around to his queen. So far, just normal correct play. Then he ran off three diamond tricks in order to discard a club from dummy. Still normal correct play.
 At this stage of the proceedings any normal player would simply knock out the ace of trumps and make the contract, barring some bad trump break. But this South wasn't going to do anything that simple.

 He proceeded to run off dummy's spades and take two club discards. West ruffed the fourth spade and looked around for new worlds to conquer. At this point West was down to six cards—two trumps—three clubs and the jack of diamonds. He could lead any card but the jack of diamonds and beat the contract but West had been rather surprised by the whole line of play and finally came to the conclusion that South still held the 10 of diamonds.
 After all, South had bid diamonds and his whole line of play had indicated that he had started with three clubs, not four.

 Anyway, West led that jack of diamonds. South triumphantly discarded a club from dummy, ruffed in his hand, finally led a trump and made his contract.

 South looked around for applause but the whole thing had been too much for us. We were already halfway out the door in full retreat.
 Just for the record, we try to avoid four card major openings but would have opened one heart with the North hand, instead of one club.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

 The World Almanac reports that Thomas Paine's
 "Common Sense," which presented a forceful case for American independence, became the first best seller in American history.
 On Jan. 10, 1776, after several Philadelphia publishers refused to invest money to print Paine's little volume, John Bell finally took the chance, and the book sold about 100,000 copies in 10 weeks.

Auburn Coach Recovering From Cancer

AUBURN, Ala. (AP)—Auburn football coach Ralph "Shug" Jordan is expected to make a complete recovery from cancer.

A medical bulletin released through the Auburn Athletic Department Wednesday reported Jordan, 57, was diagnosed to have cancer "in its early stages."

Jordan underwent exploratory surgery Monday at St. Francis Hospital in Columbus, Ga. He is scheduled to be discharged today.

The bulletin did not state the location of the cancer but at the time he entered the hospital, the Alabama Journal reported Jordan would undergo surgery for a prostate ailment.

16 Athletes Get Chance at Olympics

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sixteen American athletes with either injuries or illness too severe to permit them to compete this weekend in the U.S. Olympic trials will get another chance to make the team.

World mile recordholder Jim Ryan and world long jump recordholder Ralph Boston are among those who will be allowed to compete at South Lake Tahoe during the training week of Sept. 9-17. The action came as no surprise.

A subcommittee of U.S. track and field officials voted Wednesday on petitions submitted by athletes.

Ryan contracted a mild case of mononucleosis last month and has since been recuperating in Arizona.

Boston told the group he might be able to compete at the Los Angeles Coliseum this Saturday and Sunday in the trials but was granted permission to miss if he isn't up to it. He is a two-time Olympian.

Other name trackmen who got free passes for the meet are high hurdles Richmond Flowers and Willie Davenport, middle distance runners Preston Davis, Jere Van Dyke and Ron Kutschinski and world pole vault recordholder Paul Wilson.

Also allowed to miss this weekend's festivities are former Olympic champion Billy Mills, distance runner Ken Moore, triple jumper Aaron Hopkins, sprinters Willie Turner and Oliver Ford, shot putter Neal Steinhauer, walker Larry Walker and decathlon ace Dave Thoreson.

George Washington's will provided that all 124 slaves he owned were to be free citizens upon the death of Martha.

Competition Torrid in 100 Meters

LOS ANGELES (AP) — It doesn't figure to be another Sacramento Story in the 100-meter dash in the Olympic track and field trials this weekend. But the competition should be just as torrid.

The Saturday-Sunday trials for the 1968 Olympic Games in Mexico City will be staged in Memorial Coliseum, site of the 1932 Olympic Games.

And some old timers will tell you the new Coliseum running strip may not be as fast as it was in the old days, a point borne out by most of the sprinters who have tested it in the last couple of years.

So there may not be such world record breaking sensations of 9.9 as was turned in at Sacramento last week in the National AAU meet by Charlie Greene, Ronnie Ray Smith and Jim Hines.

Greene and Smith are scheduled to compete against each other in one heat of the 100, and Hines will run in the second heat against Mel Pender and Kurt Clayton, who tied the world mark of 10.0 over Sacramento's fast clay track.

The 200-meter dash features the world record holder, Tommie Smith, Hines and Ronnie Ray Smith. The 20 flat record may or may not stand.

Negroes Picket Little Rock Auto Dealer

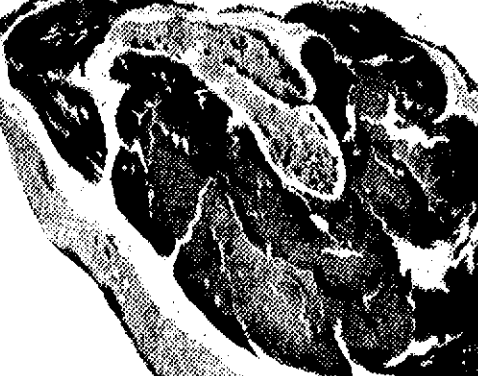

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Several persons, mostly young Negroes, picketed a Little Rock automobile dealer Wednesday to protest what a spokesman said was the firm's refusal to hire Negroes in "responsible" positions.

The protesters were members of Black United Youth, Adolph Washington, treasurer of the organization, said the firm would not hire Negroes as salesmen, mechanics and clerical positions.

Washington also said the organization was protesting the firm's non-use of Philander Smith College sorority members in a promotion stunt. Members of the sorority groups at Little Rock University participated in the promotion.

Walt Summers, sales manager of the firm, said the company based its hiring policies on qualifications.

Ray's Prints on Rifle Used to Kill King

By GODFREY ANDERSON
Associated Press Writer
LONDON (AP) — James Earl Ray, fighting extradition to the United States to stand trial for the murder of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., asserted today he did not kill the Negro civil rights leader.

The prisoner—who is charged here under the alias of Raymond George Sneyd — took the witness stand in a surprise move and testified, "I have never met Dr. King. I have never had any kind of grudge against him."

LONDON (AP) — James Earl Ray's fingerprints were found on the rifle which U.S. police believe was used to kill Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., a British lawyer representing the U.S. government told London's chief magistrate today in asking for Ray's extradition.

The lawyer, David Calcutt, told Magistrate Frank Milton that Ray's fingerprints were found on a rifle which police recovered after King was shot. "The bullet which killed Dr. King was examined when recovered," he continued, "and there is a strong likelihood that the bullet came from the rifle found by the police."

Calcutt told the crowded Bow Street Court that King was the victim of "a calculated, brutal and senseless murder—a murder that was bitter with irony."

"Though his name was a very password for peace," Calcutt said, "he met a violent death. This tragic death of Dr. King was the working of the single hand of this man," he declared, referring to Ray.

The 40-year-old escaped convict was brought into the court today to hear Calcutt outline the U.S. government's case for his extradition.

With two British lawyers to defend him, Ray was expected to fight extradition and appeal to the High Court if Milton ruled that he should be returned to the United States. This could extend the process for weeks.

It was Ray's third court appearance under the alias of Raymond George Sneyd, the name on the Canadian passport he was carrying when he was arrested June 8 at London airport. His two previous trips to Bow Street for preliminary hearings had been brief, and the proceedings today provided the first extensive look at the U.S. government's case against him.

Referring throughout to Ray as Sneyd, Calcutt gave the court this account:

On March 29, six days before King was killed in Memphis, Tenn., Ray went to a store in Birmingham, Ala., kept by a Mr. Wood and bought a rifle with telescopic sights and ammunition. There was another customer in the shop at the time.

The following day Ray was not satisfied and wanted to change the rifle. He took instead a Remington 760 which had telescopic sights attached to it. He also bought and took away a box of ammunition and a box which was not the right box for that particular gun.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Unemployment payments continued to drop during the week ending June 22, Dr. John M. Peterson, administrator of the Arkansas Employment Security Division, said Wednesday.

Peterson said $191,616 in benefits was paid to workers covered by the state's unemployment insurance law. This is a decrease from the $219,166 paid at this time last year.

Unemployed persons totaled 6,390 during the week as compared to 7,935 a year earlier. Maximum payment for a week of unemployment is $41, and the minimum is $15.

Public Opinion Shift, I.R.J. Have Gun Issue at a Critical Stage

WASHINGTON (AP) — Shift today for a vote originally scheduled a week ago.

A majority of committee members favored the measure then as the public outcry over Sen. Robert F. Kennedy's assassination crested, but developments since have clouded the issue.

Johnson pushed after the assassination for the ban on rifles and shotguns, then asked Congress in the past week to also enact legislation requiring registration of all guns and licensing of their owners.

Some gun control hawks want to tack that request onto the rifle-shotgun bill.

But public opinion has shifted dramatically, with congressmen now saying their mail is running heavily against stiffer control laws, particularly those requiring registration.

As the administration pushed its case Wednesday in a hearing before the Senate subcommittee on juvenile delinquency, the registration measure got a cool reception in the House.

Chairman Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., of the House Judiciary Committee, who has backed enactment of mail order bans on long guns, said tacking on registration might endanger the measure.

At the same time Chairman William M. Colmer, D-Miss., of the House Rules Committee rebuffed attempts to get the mail order bill to a House vote before the July 4 recess by scheduling a hearing to clear the measure for floor action the day before the recess starts.

Wallace, meanwhile, said he will not withdraw from the presidential race under any circumstances.

The former Alabama governor said early in his campaign he would withdraw if it appeared candidates of either major party would adopt the policies he said America needs.

But now "it's too late," Wallace said in Montgomery, Ala. He said for any of the Republican or Democratic candidates to support his policies now it would only make them more likely to come to pass.

In the Democratic race, Humphrey said every able American child should be guaranteed an education from age four through college and Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy said he has no intention of "meddling" in the Paris peace talks.

Humphrey said in Denver, Colo., potential high school dropouts should be counseled on a case-by-case basis and new courses should be developed for students who go directly from high school to work.

McCarthy said he wants to meet with North Vietnam diplomats in Paris this summer only to "hear what the Vietnamese have to say."

Panic Seizes You When Unemployment You First Realize That You Are Turning Bald

by HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — One of life's little ordeals is to become bald.

Some 40 per cent of men are afflicted to a greater or lesser degree with hereditary early baldness.

The first warning often comes from an offhand remark by a barber: "Getting a bit thin on top, sir, I'd do something about it if I were you."

Panic seizes you at once. What can you do about it? Every time you use your comb after that and a hair comes out it looks like the last leaf upon the tree. So you take scalp treatments, douse your skull with all kinds of tonics, rub into your scalp enough unguents and ointments to grease a battleship.

Opposition Mounts to Appointment

By JOHN CHADWICK
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Eighteen Senate Republicans have signed a petition opposing President Johnson's appointments to the Supreme Court, far short of the force they must marshal to block confirmation, but enough to make rough going if a filibuster develops.

Signers of the petition so far represent half the Senate's 36 GOP members. More could sign.

If Southern Democrats, loudly critical of the court's liberal rulings, should join the opposition confirmation of Abe Fortas as chief justice and Homer Thornberry as an associate justice could be in doubt.

President Johnson Wednesday named Fortas to succeed the retiring Earl Warren and Thornberry to the vacancy created by Fortas' elevation. Fortas, fourth Jew ever to serve on the court,

War Deaths Lowest in Two Months

SAIGON (AP) — The number of Americans killed in action in South Vietnam last week was the lowest for U.S. forces in two months, the U.S. Command reported today.

South Vietnamese forces reported a small increase in their casualties over the week before, while the U.S. Command said enemy casualties decreased slightly.

U.S. Headquarters said 299 Americans were killed in action and 2,220 were wounded in the week ending last Saturday. It was the lowest number killed since the week ending April 20 when 287 U.S. servicemen died in action.

The figures reflected a general slackening in ground fighting but raised the number of Americans killed from Jan. 1 through June 22 to 9,370, or nearly equal the 9,419 killed in all of last year.

South Vietnamese headquarters said 355 government troops were killed last week and 1,149 were wounded, compared with 286 and 1,189 the week before.

The government headquarters also reported that 262 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese soldiers were captured or surrendered last week, probably the highest total of the war.

The U.S. Command said 1,819 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese soldiers were killed by allied forces last week, a decrease of exactly 200 from the week before.

Of the 2,220 Americans wounded last week, the U.S. Command said 1,184 were hospitalized.

The U.S. Command said the weekly report raised the total of American casualties since Jan. 1, 1961 to 25,397 killed, 82,972 wounded and hospitalized, 74,545 wounded but not hospitalized, and 1,200 missing or captured.

A total of 366,160 enemy have been killed since the start of 1961, the command said.

Soviet Leaders Acting Frightened Giant Role in World Peace Talks

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent
Like an elephant among mice, the Soviet Union's leadership seems today to be acting the role of frightened giant. Its fifters can prove a major obstacle to efforts for a more peaceful world.

Taking over as the U.S. ambassador to the United Nations, George W. Ball said Wednesday that while the Vietnam war posed a problem in the quest for better Soviet-American relations, there were other areas "in which we must work together."

But the Soviet leadership does not seem to be in the mood for that. Official press treatment of recent events indicate there are major worries preying on Kremlin nerves and inhibiting cooperation.

The Soviet Communist party leaders obviously are frightened by the possibilities of contagion from movements for more freedom inside the bloc of European Communist nations and from the general ferment among youth and intellectuals around the world.

They are worried by the progressive splintering of the Communist movement, by the increasingly independent attitude of Communist-ruled Rumania, by the "democratization" process in Czechoslovakia, by the failure of a large number of Communist parties around the world to fall into line behind a Soviet drive for a world meeting of Communists.

They are worried by the attitude of Red China toward the future of Asia and toward the war in Vietnam and they are worried, too, about the Vietnam war itself.

The elephant-mouse complex apparently has been generated by little Czechoslovakia, a land of 15 million, whose recent developments have thrown a scare into the leaders of the Soviet Union, a land of nearly 250 million.

Pravda and Izvestia these days carry articles which sound much like those of the cold war at its coldest. They single out three main enemies for constant attack: the "U.S. imperialists," the "West German militarists," and the "Israeli expansionists."

Many in Europe are concerned that the Kremlin will over-react to its worries. Literary Listy, a Czechoslovak publication, recently quoted an East German Communist as saying that what is going on in Czechoslovakia is "counter-revolution." The source was quoted: "A Socialist country cannot afford to look on passively. This is in the interest of the defense of the Socialist countries and therefore cannot be qualified as interference. In the case of an intervention, possibly a military intervention, there would naturally be a collective step."

The board said it would be prepared to convert to the zoning method in September 1969 if it is determined that the method is superior to the freedom of choice.

Judge J. Smith Henley ruled in January that the district's freedom of choice plan was not satisfactory. He said the district had not made sufficient progress in either area or faculty desegregation.

Byrd Thinks Tax Increase Is Necessary
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Clyde E. Byrd of Little Rock said Wednesday night that a tax increase would probably be a necessity by 1969.

Byrd, one of six persons seeking the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, said the state would have a deficit if it continued spending as it had over the past two years.

Byrd said that if that happened, "in all probability we would have to have some tax to pick up this deficit."

The former state senator made the statement during a 30-minute question and answer television program on KTHV at Little Rock.

Byrd said he felt that Arkansans were divided fairly evenly on the mixed drink issue, but that he would not "support or introduce any mixed drink proposal."

He said the voters would decide on the need for a new state constitution and he would abide by their decision. He refused to give his personal opinion on the need for a new document.

U.S. Quits Base to Gain Mobility

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — U.S. troops are abandoning and leveling the Khe Sanh combat base, freeing its defenders to join mobile strike forces combating increased enemy forces in South Vietnam's northernmost provinces.

The U.S. Command said abandonment of the base in the northwest corner of South Vietnam where U.S. Marines took more than 2,300 casualties in a 77-day siege last winter "is part of a new concept of mobile warfare being put into operation" below the demilitarized zone, said Brig. Gen. Winant Sidle, chief of information for the U.S. Command.

"Khe Sanh will be leveled, bulldozed and the bunkers closed up," said Sidle. "It's already under way."

On the ground, South Vietnamese troops reported killing 125 enemy troops in a running battle east of Quang Tri City and 19 miles below the demilitarized zone. Government casualties were put at seven killed and 50 wounded.

South Vietnamese infantrymen also uncovered a huge cache of weapons 12 miles west-northwest of Saigon that included 126 rounds of big Russian and Chinese rockets of the type that have been used in shelling the capital.

In the air war, over North Vietnam, the U.S. Command reported that Navy F8 Crusader pilots sighted two Communist MIG21s 12 miles south of the 19th parallel Wednesday and downed one with air-to-air missiles.

It was the first MIG shot down since Feb. 14 and the first since President Johnson ordered a bombing curtailment March 31, limiting American pilots to targets below the 19th parallel. U.S. pilots now are credited with downing 106 MIGs in aerial combat compared to 47 U.S. planes lost to the MIGs.

U.S. headquarters also reported that on Tuesday Navy pilots spotted three MIGs northeast of the coastal city of Vinh and fired on them. The MIGs headed north above the 19th parallel, apparently undamaged.

In its weekly casualty report issued today, the U.S. Command said the number of Americans killed in action last week—299—was the lowest in two months. It said 2,220 Americans were wounded.

South Vietnamese headquarters said 355 government troops were killed last week and 1,149 wounded compared to 286 and 1,189 the previous week.

$135,000 in Grants for Arkansas
WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. John Paul Hammerschmidt, R-Ark., announced Wednesday that four grants totaling more than $135,000 had been approved for projects in Arkansas.

They were: —$53,915 from the office of Education to the Arkansas office for special summer program for 1,200 young people, ages 14 to 21 years, from low-income families. It is to provide them education, recreation, job opportunities and cultural enrichment.

—$50,000 from the Department of Health, Education and Welfare (HEW) to continue a study of behavior characteristics of hard-core welfare recipients who fail to retain jobs. The grant goes to the Arkansas Rehabilitation Services of Little Rock and Hot Springs, with the study being made in 14 counties around Hot Springs.

—$25,500 from HEW to Abilitates Unlimited for Northwest Arkansas Inc. so Dr. Arthur Moore of Fayetteville can hire six staff members for a comprehensive rehabilitation program.

—$5,947 from HEW to supplement a previous grant to the state Welfare Department to provide an orderly transition from a work experience and training program to the Labor Department's work incentive program in six north central Arkansas counties.

Poor People Threaten 40 Cities

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Poor People's Campaign leader says a new tactic—economic boycotts in about 40 cities—will begin in downtown Washington next week in an effort to put new pressure on Congress.

The leader, Jesse Jackson, said the aim of the boycott against specific products will be to force businessmen to pressure Congress for appropriations to relieve hunger and malnutrition among the nation's poor.

Jackson did not name the other target cities.

In another new tactic, the campaign asked a federal court injunction Wednesday to force Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman to use $227 million for food for the poor.

Freeman said the money is earmarked to support perishable food prices and is to be turned back to the federal Treasury June 30 because he has no authority from Congress to use it for any other purpose. In other developments:

—The Rev. Andrew Young, a campaign leader, said the homes and offices of all 28 House Agriculture Committee members will be picketed because the committee killed a bill to expand the food-stamp program for the poor.

—About 50 demonstrators were permitted in the House gallery after they broke up into small groups and obtained passes from Rep. John Conyers, D-Mich. No demonstrations are permitted on Capitol Hill.

The mules for the campaign's symbolic wagon train were impounded Wednesday by U.S. Park Police who said the animals were not getting proper care.

But the Interior Department said later a Washington woman, Mrs. Marilyn Riviere, had arranged to pay a month's board for the mules at a horse farm in Columbia, Md., and said she would pay to transport the mules to Washington when needed for demonstrations.

Stay Within Law, Says President

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson says those concerned about the nation's poor people should "make appropriate representations and carefully express their viewpoints," but only within the law.

"I think that everyone in Washington in a position to serve the people of this country are going to do everything they can to aid the poor," the President said during a Wednesday news conference. He had been asked if any good purpose could be served by leaders of the Poor People's Campaign turning to civil disobedience.

The news conference was staged mainly to announce Johnson's decision to accept Chief Justice Earl Warren's offer to retire from the Supreme Court.

The President said he would nominate Associate Justice Abe Fortas to be chief justice, while federal circuit Judge Homer Thornberry of Austin, Tex., would take Fortas' seat on the high court.

On a range of other topics, Johnson said he was prepared to act on the bill calling for a $10 billion tax increase and a $6 billion slash in spending as soon as the customary review of government agencies affected is finished, probably in a day or two.

He also said he hopes to get his way with Congress on requiring registration of every gun in America and licensing of all gunowners.

Otherwise the conference produced results pretty much on the negative side, Johnson said that.

He knows of no basis for rumors of a U.S.-Soviet summit session or a presidential trip to Russia.

He is unable to evaluate reasons for intensified Communist pressure on West Berlin.

He preferred not to comment on the infiltration and ground situations in Vietnam or on some possible offensive.

Life In Arkansas

For Don and Viri Sirk of Duck, W. Va., the Air Force has been a family affair because since they entered the military service 14 years ago, they have received identical assignments.

The brothers, both technical sergeants, entered the Air Force in 1954 after each had served an enlistment in the Army. They attended Air Force refresher training at Samson Air Force Base, N.Y., and from there were assigned to Keesler AFB, Miss., for technical training.

They were transferred to Carswell AFB, Tex., in 1957, where they were discharged in 1958. They re-enlisted, however, and worked at Lockbourne AFB, Ohio as bomb navigation equipment specialists on B47s.

Don and Viri, who is the older, were assigned to Little Rock AFB in 1965 where they served as bomb navigation specialists

Smackover Goes Against Tax

SMACKOVER, Ark. (AP)—A proposal to finance a mosquito control program by means of a tax increase was defeated Tuesday by Smackover residents. The vote was 180 for, 270 against.

The proposal, which had the support of the Smackover Chamber of Commerce, civic clubs and city officials, called for a $1-a-month sanitation tax increase on all households and businesses inside the city limits.

'Average' Lennons Puzzled Over Fan Mag Attacks

By DICK KLEINER
West Coast Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD—(NEA)—Next to Jackie Kennedy and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Burton, the leading targets for the fan magazines are the Lennon Sisters. Nobody quite knows why.

The four girls are far from being big stars, in the Burton league, or international figures like Mrs. Kennedy. Yet the hunt-and-peek fan mag writers delight in blabbing about them and apparently the readers gobble up every story, true or not.

Perhaps it's because Janet, Diane, Kathy and Peggy are so average. The readers can identify with them easily. The Lennons may be prettier than most young girls, and sing a little better, but at heart they are apple-pie-and-hamburger folks.

In fact, they are reluctant stars. Today, all four girls are married and all but Kathy have children. And they'd like nothing better—they say—than to give up the whole nasty business and retire to a long, happy life of housewifery.

"We don't like the business, really," says DeeDee, as Diane is called by her singing siblings. "We like meeting people, but that's about all. We don't like to travel, we don't like being away from our families, we don't like some of the people we have to meet."

"When we go somewhere," says Peggy, "like New York, we just do our jobs, that's all. After the show, we never go sight-seeing or anything. We just go back to the hotel and wait until it's time to call our families back home."

That being the case, they have reached a decision. They're going to work like mad for the next few years, squirrel away enough money for their children's education, then hopefully quit the business and raise children.

Family life is the big thing for the Lennons. They come—as any fan magazine reader knows—from a huge family. They are the oldest of 12 children of a Venice (a suburb of Los Angeles) milkman. One girl died, but the other 11 are hale, hearty and happy.

"We lived in a two-bedroom house," DeeDee says. "So our first aim, when Larry Welk Jr. found us and introduced us to his father, was to make enough money so we could build a dormitory."

THE LENNON SISTERS are right up there with the Burtons and the Kennedys when it comes to being leading targets for fan magazines. The reason? Nobody seems to know.

HOW WILL YOU CELEBRATE THE 4TH?

See a parade...
or perhaps a fireworks display?
A backyard barbecue?
How ever you celebrate we hope it will be a glorious 4th.

We think lots of folks will be picnicking.
We've anticipated their needs.
Our shelves are stocked with everything to make any picnic perfect.

Here's the best part:
No matter what you buy,
no matter who makes it, if A&P sells it, A&P guarantees it.

We guarantee everything... except the weather.
We're sorry about that—but we'll do this:
With you, we'll wish for a perfect day.
Lots of us will be picnicking too!

P. S. Don't forget the can opener?
